Rosemont's Select List of Old-Fashioned Tea Roses

The Tea Roses we have today are descendants of Rosa indica odoratissima, originally a native species of South China. They are nicknamed Tea Roses because they have the odor of crushed tea leaves. They succeed in Florida and the Gulf Coast sections where other kinds fail. For Rose satisfaction in these sections, plant more Tea Roses.

Price, $1.50 each; 3 for $3.75

Alexander Hill Gray (Yellow Maman Cochet). Large, very fragrant, deep lemon-yellow, becoming deeper as the bloom develops.

Devonsiensis (Magnolia Rose). Flower very large, full, double, moderately fragrant, creamy white; center sometimes tinged with blush. Growth very vigorous; profuse, continuous bloom.

Duchesse de Brabant. Soft rosy pink blooms that deepen to bright rose. Large, double, slightly fragrant.

Freiherr von Marschall. Medium-sized, long-pointed bud; flower large, full double, very lasting, dark carmine-red. Foliage blood-red when young. Vigorous grower.

Lady Hillingdon. Clear golden yellow. A very thrifty grower and free bloomer.

Maman Cochet. Rich coral-pink, shading to rosy crimson. Very large, with thick, shell-like petals.

Marie van Houtte. Large, very double, high-centered flower of deep cream color, tinged carmine-pink, with buff-yellow base. Vigorous, bushy, sprawling; rich green foliage.

Mme. Lombard. Large, very double, fragrant, rosy salmon, deepening toward center. Vigorous.

Mrs. Dudley Cross. Full, pale chamois-yellow, edged in autumn with rose and carmine. Good grower and bloomer.

Safrano. Large, semi-double, fragrant, saffron and apricot-yellow.

Snowflake. Pure white; profuse and continuous bloom. Very vigorous.

William R. Smith. Best of all Teas for cutting! Large double flowers of softly diffused blush pink on long stiff stems.

Hardy Climbers, Ramblers and Pillar Roses

A Climbing Rose is a plant that, if given support, grows higher and higher, starting each year from or near the top of the previous year's growth.

A Rambler, properly speaking, has long, thin, pliable branches which if not supported, take root where they touch the ground and thus "ramble."

A Pillar Rose does not climb or "ramble" for its canes are too stiff. Some are strong and self-supporting; others require a stake or some support.

EVERBLOOMING POLYANTHA OR BABY ROSES

The origin of the Polyantha is not clear. It is believed to have come from the Multiflora ramblers; hence the misleading names sometimes applied to them "Baby Ramblers." They are not ramblers in any sense of the word, but very dwarf, bushy plants, blooming in large clusters of tiny flowers. Excellent for mass planting or dwarf, informal hedges and borders.

Price, except as noted, best-grade, 2-yr. plants, $1.10 each; 3 for $2.85; $10.50 per doz.

Cecile Brunner. The true Sweetheart Rose. Sprays of rosy pink buds open into shell-pink flowers. $1.50 each; 3 for $3.75.

Chatillon Rose. Semi-double, fragrant, bright pink blooms in large clusters.

George Elger (Yellow Baby Rambler). Like famous yellow Sweetheart rose except color is coppery to clear yellow. Blooms in large clusters. Dwarf plant. Height to 15 inches.

Gloria Mundi. The prettiest orange-scarlet Baby Rose we know. A deserving winner of medals.

Katharina Zeimet. Large clusters of small white flowers One of the best white Baby Roses.

Peach Blossom. Clusters of 6-12 orange-red buds open into semi-double 2 inch blooms of soft carmine-rose. Bush dwarf and vigorous.

Perle d'Or. Dainty, long-pointed, salmon-orange buds; medium-sized, double, lasting, intensely fragrant, salmon-pink flowers borne in large clusters.

Floribunda or Hybrid Polyantha Roses

This is not any particular strain of Roses, but rather a new group derived from various sources. They are strong growers, more cold-resistant than Hybrid Teas; the flowers are single to very double, borne in huge clusters throughout the season. They are most effective planted all one color in mass plantings or as informal borders and hedges.

Price, except as noted, best-grade 2-yr. plants, $1.10 each; 3 for $2.85; $10.50 per doz.

Else Poulsen. Flowers medium size, semi-double, open, very lasting, slightly fragrant, bright rose-pink, borne in clusters on long stems.

Eutin. Bud pointed-globular; flower double, cupped, glowing carmine-red; cluster to 100 on long, strong stem. Very vigorous (2-3 ft.) continous bloom. $1.25 each; 3 for $3.15.

Floradora. One of the most satisfactory of the Floribundas. An eye-catching orange-red. Always in bloom. Height 24 to 30 inches. $1.25 each; 3 for $3.15.

Gruss an Aachen. Large, double flowers of Hybrid Tea quality, in clusters. Flesh-pink and salmon-yellow.

Improved Lafayette. Semi-double, open, slightly fragrant; deep glowing red, suffused vivid crimson. Vigorous; bushy.

Kirsten Poulsen. Medium-sized, bright scarlet flower, single, open, lasting, slightly fragrant, borne in clusters on long stems. Vigorous, bushy plant that blooms profusely during the entire season. Foliage light green.

Permanent Wave. Large, semi-double flowers of bright cochineal-crimson; blooms in clusters. Edges of petals wavy, producing a very decorative effect. $1.35 each; 3 for $3.50.

Red Ripples. Bud small, globular. Semi-double, ox-blood-red to carmine flowers borne in clusters.
